

Contradictory Woman ©2021 march/janeway/Carol & Dirk Bertram

A

Contradictory woman,

She's two of a kind,

always knows who she wants to be always chooses her own mind,

You may think that you know her,

But she's only real inside

(And) she's a contradictory

woman

E

She'll take you by surprise

Contradictory woman,
she keeps her nose up high,
You never hear her hurtin' words
And you'll never see her cry,
You think you spent the night with her,
but she never did get undressed,
this contradictory woman only shows her at her best

Chorus:

Contradictory woman

Always knows who she is

And she always knows who she

wants to be

It's just the way she lives

Contradictory woman

She's always on the move,

Always got a joke at hand

But yet nothin' she must prove,

You think you got the joke on her

But it has already bounced back, the contradictory woman knows what's comin' before you laugh

Chorus:

Contradictory woman

And she always knows who she wants to be

It's just the way she lives

Contradictory woman,
You can get her for a while,
She'll give you eyes worth dying for
And a God-given pearl of a smile,
You think she's only there for you
And that she'll take you back home,
But this contradictory woman is only real when she's alone
