

3. Got a Coffee Goin' in the Kitchen ©2020 janeway/Carol & Dirk Bertram

G
Got a coffee goin' in the kitchen
D
Got a beer open in the lounge
C
Don't look under there ___ under my rockin' chair
G
You won't like what you have found

G
I can tidy it up tomorrow,
Tomorrow is another day,
C
But I got to say, oh honey-babe,
G
I think ma dirt is here to stay...

C
You better tidy it up by tomorrow,
G
I ain't gonna wait another damn
day,
If that dirt's still here and I walk through your beer,
don't think that I am goin' to stay ..

(I) Stayed up (mighty) late last night
Not sure when I layed (me) down, Must have been when you turned off the light
Cos' I didn't see stuff lying around

I can tidy it up tomorrow,
Tomorrow is another day,
But I got to say, oh honey-babe,
I think ma dirt is here to stay

You better tidy it up by tomorrow,
I ain't gonna wait another damn
day,
If that dirt's still here and I walk
through your beer,
don't you think that I am goin' to stay ..

You'll find me by followin' my dirt trail
You'll find me sittin' in my own slum You'll know where I've been, when you know what I mean n'you won't be diggin' what I have done

I can tidy it up tomorrow,
Tomorrow is another day,
But I got to say, oh honey-babe,
I think ma dirt is here to stay

You better tidy it up by tomorrow,
I ain't gonna wait another damn
day,
If that dirt's still here and I walk
through your beer,
don't think that I am goin' to stay ..

I heard you pickin' up some bottles
I'm sure I heard you kickin' ass too I could hear that you ain't peachy with me
But it was better not to talk to you ...

I can tidy it up tomorrow,
I can tidy it up today,
But I got to say, oh honey-babe,
I thought you liked me better that way...

You can tidy up by tomorrow,
Tomorrow is another day,
But I gotta say, oh honey-babe,
I sure do love you anyway!

And again, a little everyday story about having different points of view between man and wife. In the end love always rules!

We wrote this song in October 2020
